

UMEÅ UNIVERSITET

UMEÅ CENTRUM FÖR GENUSSTUDIER

This overall assessment is based partly on the students' course evaluation and partly on the opinions of participating teachers. The overall assessment shows what worked well, less well and what changes the teachers sees as necessary for the next course opportunity. In some cases, the assessment may also contain additional points of view arising from assessments made by participating teachers.

Course information

Course name and course code:	Equality in policy and practice, 2KC032
Course location:	Online
Spring/Fall semester	Spring
Number of students / Response frequency:	37 / 12 (32%)
Paper/Online:	Online

Summary of the students' main points of view:

Most students believed that the course met or mostly met the specified learning outcomes. But all respondents wished for more live interaction with the teacher as well as with other students in seminars.

Summary of what worked well on the course:

Good and thorough written feedback on assignments.
Most students liked and appreciated the course literature.

Summary of what worked less well on the course assessment of what worked less well on the course:

Lack of live seminars. To high pace/workload, and many complained about too much course literature.

Proposal for possible change before the next course opportunity:

More live seminars and opportunities to discuss the course litterateur during the seminars.
More meetings, more time with the teacher, more time to ask questions (live question-time and live seminars).