Processing of personal data

We need to save and process personal data about you that you provide here in your application. What you write in your application can become a public document that may be released if someone makes a request to access it. Umeå University is a public authority and has an obligation to follow the regulations for official documents, public authority archives and official statistics. Your data will be saved for five years. We may also share your personal data with a third party, provided that we are obliged to do so by law.

For more information, please see: www.umu.se/en/about-the-website/legal-information/processing-of-personal-data/

By checking this box, I agree to the declaration above, and the processing of my personal data

If I am awarded a scholarship, I would like to get in touch with an alumni (former student at Umeå University) in the host country during my field studies.

If 'yes', the International Office will try to get in in contact with an alumni.
