Attachments to your application

All attachments should be in English except for the PUT-documents. Certificate from your supervisor/Intyg från din handledare may be in Swedish or English. You also need to submit the application form.

1. Project description in English

This is the main part of your application. The project description can consist of no more than five A4-pages and must include:

- Background, theory, objective and method.
- A reflection of your choice of subject and the subject's connection to the Global Goals 2030 and the government's seven thematic priorities for Swedish development cooperation (in Swedish), as well as how the study may be beneficial to the host country.
- Timeline including preparatory work.
- Implementation on site and expected outcome.
- Alternative plan and arrangement (what happens if your original plan need to be changed?).
- Citation (does not have to be part of the five A4-pages).

2. A preliminary budget of costs that should be covered by the scholarship, for example

- Roundtrip to the host country according to the cheapest alternative.
- Travel to and from the preparatory course.
- Vaccinations and eventual medical examination.
- Any necessary trips within the country or region.
- Any costs for equipment.
- Costs for printing the thesis (no more than 10 copies).
- Part of living expenses (50 % of the subsistence abroad). On the Swedish Tax agency's website you find tables of subsistence abroad, established in 2018: skatteverket.se (in Swedish)
